3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

On October 17, 2008, the defendant's imprisonment sentence was reduced to 97 months pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2).

On April 23, 2013, a Domestic Violence Protective Order was filed against the defendant by his wife, Jakeeshia Scriven. The charges were dismissed on May 7, 2013, due to his wife failing to show for court. On November 27, 2013, the defendant was charged in Cumberland County, North Carolina, with Driving While License Revoked; Failure to Surrender Title/Registration Card/Tag; Operate a Vehicle No Insurance and Canceled, Revoked, Suspended Certificate/Tag (13CR725383 and 13CR725384). These matters remain pending at this time. Additionally, the defendant failed to notify the probation officer of these charges as required. The defendant has admitted smoking marijuana and attributes same to stress relating to family conflicts, past history, and gang association. Scriven has been referred for substance abuse counseling and is being supervised at a high intensity level. Based upon the foregoing violations, it is respectfully recommended that the defendant serve two weekends in jail. Additionally, in an effort to address future violations more efficiently, it is recommended that jurisdiction be transferred to the Middle District of North Carolina.

The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing agreeing to the proposed modification of supervision.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that supervised release be modified as follows:

1. The defendant shall be confined in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for two (2) weekends as arranged by the probation office, and shall abide by all rules and regulations of the designated facility.

Except as herein modified, the judgment shall remain in full force and effect.

Reviewed and approved,
